

THE CHARTERED FREEMEN AND WOMEN OF THE CITY OF GLOUCESTER

President Mr. L Hensley

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) 2018

On 25th May 2018 new GDPR rules come into force to supersede the current Data Protection Act and we need to be compliant.

To do this we will only keep personal data for current Freemen / Women consisting of names, addresses, telephone numbers, gender, age and email addresses (when supplied). Our legitimate interest for holding this data is that without it we cannot service your membership as you are entitled and advise you of any events,

We will seek your consent each year with your membership renewal to continue to hold your data and we ensure you that your data will never be sold or shared with anyone outside our organisation except for the provision of mailing details to our Newsletter printers.

You are always entitled to see your personal details that we hold and may instruct us to delete it if you wish. Of course, we will not be able to service your membership without your data, so your contact will automatically cease.
